and building digital solutions that create real-world impact. Throughout my academic journey, I have actively participated in departmental activities, volunteering programs, and student community initiatives, which have helped me develop leadership, teamwork, and communication skills. Beyond academics, I enjoy exploring entrepreneurship, particularly in the e-commerce sector, and continuously seek opportunities to expand my knowledge in business and technology. My goal is to build innovative solutions, contribute to meaningful projects, and grow into a skilled technology professional capable of making a positive difference. I believe in learning by doing, embracing challenges, and constantly improving myself both personally and professionally.
